
CAWIC BURSARY CRITERIA

Canadian Association of Women in Construction (CAWIC) is a not-for-profit organization supporting women in the Canadian construction industry. One of its mandates is to promote education and encourage women to pursue careers in the construction industry.

This year CAWIC is offering a number of $2,000.00 bursaries to female students enrolled in construction related studies at Canadian post-secondary institutions.

Minimum qualifications are:

- Applicant must identify as a woman
- Canadian citizenship or permanent resident status
- Completed first year of a diploma or degree program at a college or university and full-time enrolment in the subsequent year.
- Demonstrated clear career objectives relating to the construction industry
- Evidence of financial need
- Leadership qualities and involvement in community activities
- Demonstrated interest in activities that further the advancement of women in construction, and involvement in related community activities

Students who wish to apply for a CAWIC bursary must submit the following minimum documentation:

- Completed Application Form
- Two letters of reference, at least one from a current college or university instructor. Letters from family members are not acceptable.
- Most recent grade transcript
- Cover letter describing career objectives in the construction industry and their thoughts on diversity, equity and inclusion.

It is mandatory that all items referenced above are received for your application to be considered

Deadline for application submission is June 30, 2023.
Please note all applicants will be contacted in August 2023.

Please note: Successful recipients will be required to provide proof of their continued enrolment at college/university by July 30th of the current year, provide their SIN No. and will be asked to provide a 1-minute video outlining what inspired them to pursue a career in construction.
